

ALDERMAN FITZWARREN

Male

Where oh where is that cook of mine? Dolly Doolittle.....such an apt name for someone who does nothing all day.

Oh hello. Sorry i didn't see you creep in. Let me introduce myself. My name is Alderman Fitzwarren and I am the land owner around here. I own the General Stores and I'm looking to take on primary in a year or two.

Business is brisk, so i've been looking for a new assistant and i think i might have found one. His names Dick Whittington. He seems bright, but insists on taking his cat with him everywhere which worries me a bit. I'm sure its just a phase he's going through.....
