

Capt JOSHUA BILGE

Male/Female

Heave- ho me hearty.

My name is Bilge...Captain Joshua Bilge of the high seas. I'm in charge of my ship and she's ready to sail to the far reaches of the world.....We'll the River Avon at least!

I've just pulled into port to gain supplies from my good friend Alderman Fitzwarren. He's a funny old chap....but his terms are good. Buy now pay at some point when you've got the money!

My 1st mates gone to the fish and chips shop because our fryer has stopped working. He says he trained to speed the word of god and not spread batter onto fish! With the current pandemic on you'd think he'd be happy to have a job!
