

ALICE FITZWARREN

Hello everyone. My name is Alice and my father is Alderman Fitzwarren. I work for him in his general stores. Its not the most exciting job in the world but i love talking to the customers and having a good old chat!

I've met a really nice young man today who has a beautiful cat called Tommy. Dick Whittington is his name and he tells me he's going to become famous and wealthy. He does make me laugh. He hasn't got two beans to rub together. However he thinks he will make his fortune i don't know.

I'd love to get to know him better. He's got a lovely accent and a great sense of humour and of course a beautiful cat!
