

PRINCESS TAFFETA

Good afternoon everyone. My name is Princess Taffita of Morocco....but you can call me taff. No I'm not welsh its just short for taffeta which is a bit of a mouthful. My father tells me I was named after his grandmother, but the only other taffeta i've ever come across is a piece of material i bought from the local hareem haberdashery shop.

I've just heard that some strangers have landed on the beach, just outside Badsey. They're a strange looking lot, especially the cook. It looks like a man dressed up in frumpy granny clothes...but it can't be? can it?
