

Baron: My name is Baron Hardup of Hardup Manor. I was once the richest man in Worcestershire, that is until my wife came along! She's spent all have...and more. As well as bringing loads of baggage with her she landed me with the most awful step daughters you can imagine.

The tallest one is called Melisandre and the short one Griselder. I actually call them 'grab it and scarper', because all the6 seem to do is grab my money and run off with it! One is addicted to Chocolate and the other to Cheese. If anyone is looking for a Dracula bride I've got 2 - both free to any takers. (To audience) Any takers? I thought not.
