

Prince Orlando Song- One Knight

Give me a dragon i can slay
Just say the word and i'll obey
Show me a damsel in distress and i'll save her
If there's a mission i'm your man
Throw in some love if you can
No i'm not lancelot
I'll will be braver

I'm sure to save the day
I'm working on my destiny
I don't care about the price of day
I just wanna be, i wanna be your

One knight who'll fight
And be a loving guy
One knight in sight
Who has been vibe verified
You'll never find another one like me,
And even if you ever do,
Show me one knight who will be half as true

Please just give me half a chance
I'm an outsource knight, from long-lost lands
I don't even need a real big advance just a kiss will do
If i can be your

One knight
Alright
Technically 100 years shy
Still the one knight bright white,
But still a regular guy
A knight who when you ask will always say
Your every wish is my command
I'm the one knight for this endeavor
One knight now and forever
One knight for this sleeping beauty
